

Good afternoon Parents/Carers,

Yes, you guessed it, it's that time of the week again and I hope you all have that Friyay feeling! Just one more week until you have the joy of having your little treasures back at home for a week and a day (don't forget the extra day) so enjoy the peace while you can. Ok, lets get going because once again I have lots to share with you.

This week we had our Hello Yellow Day and the school certainly was awash with yellow, it looked so bright and cheery. Thank you for your support in this and I'm sure you will be pleased to learn that we raised £100 for this charity! It was a lovely day and there's some lovely photographs on Facebook so please have a look and give our posts a like or even better a love!

On the same day as this event, our Netball team competed at Crompton House in an intra-school tournament. The girls played magnificently and came in second! Once again, thank you to Miss Hollinshead and Mr Parker for taking them but more importantly well done team ECSTG!!!!

Polite reminder that the last day to place orders for Young Voices tickets and t-shirts is Monday. Mrs Drysdale keeps reminding me so I'll return the favour and keep reminding you! School is not able to place any orders after Monday so unfortunately if you are last minute .com you will be out of luck! You have been warned.

Another reminder is about Parents Evening meetings. If you haven't booked a slot already then you best get your skates on this weekend because these will be closed on Monday morning. If you go on the website and go to "Teaching and Learning", then "Classes" and then select your child's class. The form should be just below the teacher greeting.

Next week is also photograph day, Wednesday 18/10/23. Children should be in full school uniform (bit like every other day really) and if you want photographs with younger siblings who don't attend our school yet, these will be taken from 8.15am. Let's see the children all bright and shiny with smart hair styles and tell them to say cheese!

There are a few different attachments this week (I'll discover soon if the system lets me send them all at once), some have informative information from Oldham Council and the other is from our wonderful PTA about an exciting up coming event but I shall let them reveal all in their letter! Trust me though its good.

OK, I think that's it (hope so because time is getting on and it is Friday). Hope you all have a great weekend, I'm excited for mine because my eldest daughter is visiting from Uni! See you next week!

Take care and stay safe,

Mrs M Gledhill
